Blood Bank Officials Extend Charter Membership Deadline

A spokesman for the new Morgan County Blood Bank's administrative board this week announced that the deadline for enrollment of charter members has been extended from June 30 until July 15.

Charter members in the organization are entitled to draw free blood immediately after signing, whereas those who enroll later must wait 30 days before they are allowed to draw from the blood bank.

Miss Naomi Finch, the board's secretary-treasurer, said Tuesday around 50 new memberships signed late last week "brings the total number of enrollees to approximately 250."

"But our immediate aim is to enroll at least 500 members," she said, "and the board has decided to extend the deadline for charter memberships as an incentive to join."

"Eventually, we hope to enroll a thousand," she added.

She explained that charter membership entitles the member and four of his family members or other designated persons to draw free blood immediately.

Rules stipulate that persons who join after the initial charter membership drive is ended must wait 30 days before being permitted to draw blood, she said. (Complete rules governing the blood bank program are published elsewhere in this edition.)

To join, a person must be 18 years of age. The only requirement is that members must donate a pint of blood once every four years. The donations will be made at mobile units which will visit West Liberty at regular intervals and members scheduled to donate at the first donor clinic will be notified well in advance. The mobile unit's first scheduled visit to West Liberty is the first week in September, Miss Finch said.

There is no limit to the amount of blood a member or his designated beneficiaries can draw from the blood bank, and they are eligible whether the membership holder has made his first blood donation or not. The only charge for the blood is a small processing fee.

Persons 65 years of age and over may not donate blood, but may enroll in the Blood Bank provided they can furnish a substitute donor.

Miss Finch called attention to the difficulty and high cost of obtaining blood by persons not covered by the blood bank plan and urged everyone who has not yet returned their membership cards to do so as quickly as possible.

Persons who did not receive a membership card in the mail may obtain one at Elan Rexall Drug Store or at Commercial Bank.

SEVEN PERSONS BITTEN BY RABID PUP LAST WEEK

Rabid Fox Killed By Horse In Wolfe County Sunday

Seven persons, including Dr. Wm. G. Holbrook, West Liberty veterinarian, are taking anti-rabies shots after being bitten by a 6-week-old rabid pup last week.

The pup, owned by the Cella Watts family of Vanceville in Breathitt County was brought to Dr. Holbrook for examination Tuesday of last week after it became ill and bit four of the Watts children and two neighbor youngsters.

Dr. Holbrook, who suspected rabies, confined the dog for observation. He said its condition worsened and on Friday he killed the animal and its head was rushed by Mr. Watts to Frankfort for examination at the state laboratory, where the report was positive.

Dr. Holbrook was bitten while examining the animal.

Another case of rabies also has been detected in Wolfe County. Taylor King found a dead fox in his stable near Campton Sunday morning. The fox had been kicked and stomped to death by a horse, and the Wolfe County Health Department was later informed from Frankfort that an examination of the animal's head indicated it definitely had rabies.

AMITROLE WEED KILLER BANNED ON CROPLANDS

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The federal Environmental Protection Agency Saturday announced a ban on cropland use of Amitrole, a weed killer which was involved in the 1959 cranberry scare.

Although not used on cranberries since 1959, Amitrole use has continued on apples, pears, grainfields, corn, alfalfa, clover, legumes, pastures, peas, soybeans and grapes, the EPA said.

The EPA said it was issuing a final ban, effective in 30 days, on the basis of tests in which rats fed 100 parts per million of Amitrole for 68 weeks developed thyroid cancer.

Amitrole will continue to be permitted for non-cropland applications. Uses of the poison include control of poison ivy.

Tests linking Amitrole with cancer in rats were conducted before 1959. The poison, also called aminotriazole, was permitted for certain crops including cranberries, but no food residues of Amitrole were permitted.

In 1950, the Food and Drug Administration found Amitrole residues in several shipments of cranberries. Arthur Flemming, then secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, advised Americans to skip cranberries that Thanks, giving.

The FDA said it has found no Amitrole residues in subsequent cranberry tests, conducted yearly.

The order bars any use of the weed killer on croplands.

STATE YOUNG DEMS. NAME PIKE MAN; WEST LIBERTY NATIVE GETS POST

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Herb Deskins, Jr., county attorney in Pike County, was elected president of the Kentucky Young Democrats Saturday at the organization's convention at the Seelbach Hotel.

Another Eastern Kentuckian, Herbert L. Wells, a native of West Liberty, was elected second vice president.

Deskins, a Johnson County native, who supported Bert Combs in the recent Democratic gubernatorial primary, pledged all his resources toward helping Lt. Gov. Wendell Ford, who defeated Combs, win the governor's race in November and healing the wounds of the bitter Democratic primary.

Ford, who spoke at the convention, said he is "proud to be a member of a political party that believes that people of Kentucky are capable of choosing their party nominees, rather than having them handpicked for them."

The Young Democrats passed a resolution which called for

EMBERTON ANNOUNCES PLANS TO AID KENTUCKY'S SENIOR CITIZENS

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Republican gubernatorial nominee Tom Emberton outlined his proposals to aid Kentucky's senior citizens Tuesday. Promising a better way of life for the state's estimated 350,000 citizens who are 65 years of age or older, Emberton outlined 10 ways in which he believes the goal can be accomplished.

His program includes a state Department of Aging, improved health services, increased job opportunities, and support of federal legislation to increase benefits of the old age assistance program.

He pledged to continue the state administration's policy of "fully returning" that money which the state might receive due to increases in Social Security payments.

Key Issue

The question of such increases is a key issue among the elderly this year since last month's 10 per cent increase did not fully filter its way down to Kentuckians.

Emberton said, however, he "is definitely going to find a method whereby Social Security recipients could receive the full amount of future increases without a cutback in state assistance benefits."

He said "federal regulation presently requires such cutbacks in state assistance but lowering the drinking age from 21 to 18. Although the resolution was defeated in committee, it emerged as a minority report and won approval on the floor.

The other resolutions passed: Urging additional appropriations for the current Kentucky program to prevent and treat venereal diseases.

—Calling on Republican Gov. Louie B. Nunn to more rigidly enforce existing laws against strip mining.

—Endorsing a 5 per cent severance tax on coal, gas and oil.

—Favoring publication of the secret Pentagon study on American involvement in Vietnam.

Defeated was a resolution which called for legalization of marijuana. It never emerged from committee.

Attending the Young Democrats Convention from this county were John Motley, Walter Blevins, Jr., Asa Mervel Vest and Joe Stacy Wells.

Always keep a safe distance between your car and the one in front. Liberty Mutual Insurance Companies advises that at least ten feet should be allowed between cars for every ten miles an hour of travel speed. If you drive any closer you might come to a dead end.

OBITUARY PEFREY

Arrie Frank Pelfrey, son of John Frank Pelfrey and Victoria Templeton Pelfrey, was born July 25, 1918, at Florress, Ky., and departed this life suddenly at his home in Lebanon, Ohio, June 8, 1971, at the age of 52 years 10 months and 14 days.

June 13, 1936, he was united in marriage to Bertie France, and to this union was born one daughter, Glois Pelfrey Williams of Kings Mills, Ohio. In 1945, he entered the service of his country and served proudly, until the ending of the war.

For the past 26 years he had been a member of the Elkfork Masonic Lodge and sometime ago, had been awarded a 25 year membership pin in that order.

He leaves to survive him his faithful and most devoted companion, his loving and faithful daughter, his attentive son-in-law, a grandson, Timothy Williams, and a granddaughter, Robyn Sue Williams whom he loved and cherished as he did his own daughter. He also leaves one brother, Butler Pelfrey, Loveland, Ohio; and a nephew and niece, Randy and Vicki Pelfrey, who were near to him.

Arrie Frank had been in very poor health the past 10 years, and although doctors and Medical Science did what they could, the dreaded diseases that gripped his body continued to conquer.

He grew up and spent most of his life in the Lacy Creek Community and even after he had spent several years in Ohio, as long as he was physically able he still looked forward to coming back to the land he loved and meeting and visiting his friends and neighbors.

He welcomed friends into his home and shared his hospitality to the limit.

And now that his journey has ended, his many acts of kindness and thoughtfulness, will be sadly missed by his family, his neighbors, and his many other relatives and friends.

HOLLIDAY

BY HARRISON HOLLIDAY

June 28 — The blight not only hit the corn crop in this section but blight, or something, attacked our silver maple trees that we had for shade and two are already dead and the others are dying fast. I am wondering if the blight from the corn crop could have come to the trees.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lloyd Ross and daughters, Sue and Janice, from Reading, Ohio were in last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ross of Insko and Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Holliday of this place.

On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ross of Insko, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew E. Ross and son, Andy, of Akron, Ohio, with the Ross Family from Reading, Ohio visited Harrison Holliday and family.

Miss Brenda Holliday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Holliday of Mason, Ohio, came in with the Ross Family of Reading, Ohio. She is our granddaughter as one Sue and Janice Ross. We were glad to have them all.

I was informed that Mr. Herbert Oney of Cincinnati was in Saturday to visit her father, Arna Salyers, of this place, who is now in the hospital at Morehead after having an heart attack several days ago. He got too hot working in his garden.

I got two letters from my nieces, Mrs. Vergie Steele of Pleasant Plain, Ohio and Mrs. Maggie Burton Budd of Denver, Colorado. They were both doing very well.

Curtis Lykins and some of his family were visiting relatives in this section last weekend.

Frank Gullett of this section was cutting grass on a field for diverted acres for Harrison Holliday last week.

Charley Holliday has been informed from the records of Frankfort, Ky. that my grandmother, Martha Holliday, was a widow in the year of 1850 in Morgan County and that her children, William: Holliday, my father, was 17 years old, his brother, Jilson, was 14, his brother, Alexander, was 12 two sisters "twins", Mary and Elizabeth, were 10, and a sister, Elender, 7. As I mentioned in my news before my grandfather, Samuel Holliday, never returned from a trip in which some slaves were involved.

AMBULANCE FIRM REDUCES RATES FOR FAMILY PLAN

Faul Motley of Morgan Ambulance Service said yesterday that "a few" new emergency ambulance subscriptions have been received by the firm after it reduced the price for the subscriptions last week.

The subscriptions, which normally are sold for $30, are being offered for $15 per subscriber and cover the cost of all emergency ambulance service for the subscriber and his family throughout the remainder of the year.

The subscriptions also entitle the subscriber to reduced rates for regular ambulance service.

Persons who have purchased subscriptions are charged $45 per trip from West Liberty to Ashland or Lexington rather than the regular $65 charge. Subscribers pay $35 per trip to Morehead rather than the $45 normal charge. And all ambulance runs inside Morgan County cost subscribers $20 rather than the normal $30.

Persons interested in purchasing an emergency ambulance service subscription should contact the Ambulance Service, phone 743-4700. The offer is good through July 15.

Motley said the firm depends heavily on the sale of the subscriptions to remain solvent. The firm provides the only ambulance service in Morgan County.

MAGOFFIN COUPLE HURT IN WRECK NEAR EZEL FRI.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Gibson were admitted to St. Claire Medical Center, Morehead, where they were treated for severe lacerations. Mrs. Gibson also is reported to have suffered severe back injuries.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our husband and father, Emory Birchwell who passed away April 23, 1971.

We watched you through all your suffering and often we had to cry, for we knew that very soon we'd have to say goodbye. Each time we see his picture, he seems to smile and say, "Don't cry children, I'm on my way, will meet again someday."

Sadly missed by wife and Children and Grandchildren. (pd.)

OWINGSVILLE BUSINESS MAN DIES AT AGE 77

FLEMINGSBURG, KY. — Herbert Anderson, 77, co-owner of the Men's Shop clothing store here, died June 19. Earlier he had served as a mail carrier for 22 years. He was active in civic organizations and a member of the Methodist Church.

BUSINESS HERE AND HEREABOUTS

HOGS INCREASE — Hogs on Kentucky farms increased 3% during the year ending June 1, says the Kentucky Crop and Livestock Reporting Board. However, the 1971 spring pig crop was down 2%.

ASHLAND BUYS ANOTHER — Ashland Oil Co. last week made tentative agreement to buy Union Carbide's oil and gas interests for approximately $90 million in cash. Included will be all of Union Carbide's oil and gas holdings in many parts of the world. But the principal properties Ashland is acquiring are Union Carbide's interests in Louisiana offshore properties where Carbide produces approximately 10,000 barrels a day of oil and 38 million cubic feet of gas, also the 21,000 acres of offshore leases that Carbide acquired at a federal sale last year. Carbide owned 7.75% of this block, and five wells are being drilled on it. Other Carbide properties are located in Appalachian Eastern Kentucky and West Virginia, also in Wyoming and some in the North Slope leases off Alaska, and a 14,000 acre block in Texas where drilling is underway.

Carbide's 1/2 interest in a pipeline that moves oil from the Louisiana offshore production to terminal points. Overseas properties are in Ecuador, Ghana, Liberia, Spanish Sahara, Spain and Puerto Rico. Orin Adkins, Ashland president, said "the excellent spread of producing properties particularly in the Gulf Coast area which is a principal source of supply for our refineries, made acquisition of Carbide properties a natural one." Ashland presently has only 27,400 barrels of oil production per day which amounts to about 8.8% of its domestic refining capacity of 315,000 barrels a day. Thus, the additional 10,000 barrels production will put Ashland on a better competitive basis in a time of rising crude oil prices.

END-OF-MONTH DOLDRUMS — Food stamps and welfare checks, issued the first week in the month, make a noticeable difference in business in these parts. And the first-of-the-month pickup in business is decidedly noticeable after end-of-the-month doldrums. By the way, do you know that food stamps are just like issuing new currency for the economy.

NEW EXPLORATION — George Breathitt, president of National Chemical Corp. of Louisville, announced formation this week of National Gas Exploration One, which he said hopes to raise $3 million for oil and gas exploration in Eastern and Western Kentucky.

$1.3 MILLION JOB — Pikeville's $1.3 million Models City project, authorized last year by the Federal government, received approval last week for an additional $1.3 million for a massive urban renewal job. The project involves moving the C & O Railway lines from the main part of town, re-routing US-23 and US-460, and diverting Big Sandy River through the Peach Orchard mountain.

OBSERVATIONS AND PREDICTIONS

NO DEEP COAL — When coal is discussed in Morgan the statement is heard over and over again that there is an 11-foot vein down below the creek level under this area. We checked on this with one of the county's water well drillers. He said "There just is no coal down deep. I've drilled over nearly all the county—some wells 390 feet deep, and we've never gone through a big coal vein. About the biggest coal we've gone through is 4 inches, sometimes maybe 5 inches."

MARK HOPKINS ESTATE — A reader of this paper in Enid, Oklahoma writes that she read a story carried in our columns recently concerning the reputed estate of one Mark Hopkins who went west from Kentucky and acquired a big fortune in California. Since he was never married, the state was never settled and has now grown into the millions. This reader from Oklahoma says she recently read another biographical sketch of Mark Hopkins by one Oscar Lewis in a book entitled "The Big Four." This biography gives Hopkins' birthplace as New York, and reports that he did marry a lady named Mary Sherman and that the estate was left to Mrs. Hopkins, then upon her death went to an adopted son, one Tim Hopkins. So, that's that.

TEST FOR HEROIN — All GI's leaving Vietnam now must take a test for heroin addiction before leaving for home. A new test method can reliably detect heroin up to five days after a user has had a "fix."

Bert Combs Named To Railway Board

Louisville, Ky. — Atty. Bert T. Combs, former governor, was elected a director of Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Railway, an affiliate of Southern Railway System, it has been announced by Southern's president, W. Graham Clayton. Morgan County Blood Bank RULES OF THE ADVANCE DEPOSIT BLOOD DONOR GROUP

WEST LIBERTY, KENTUCKY

ARTICLE I: PURPOSE

The purpose of the Morgan County Advance Deposit Blood Donor (ADBD) Group shall be to provide through a blood donor service, replacement blood for associates and their beneficiaries.

ARTICLE II: ELIGIBILITY AND BENEFITS

Section 1 All associates of the Morgan County Blood Bank shall be eligible for voluntary enrollment in the ADBD Group.

Section 2 Individuals who enroll in the ADBD Group before July 1, 1971 shall be deemed "charter members" and shall be entitled to benefits arising from participation in the group immediately upon its activation.

Section 3 New associates may join the ADBD Group within 30 days from the date of their new residence in Morgan County and become immediately entitled to benefits under the plan.

Section 4 Eligible individuals who do not enroll as charter members may enroll at any time after July 1, 1971, but such enrollees shall not be entitled to receive benefits until 30 days after they have signed a membership card, at which time membership becomes effective.

Section 5 An eligible individual who would like to join the ADBD Group but does not qualify as a donor may enroll by providing a substitute acceptable to the CKBC Blood Bank. One member may serve as a substitute for another if his own turn in the group deposit cycle is not too near.

Section 6 Beneficiaries of AD

BD members shall be eligible, as defined and limited below, for protection under the ADBD plan without being obligated to make donations, and shall be termed "blood beneficiaries".

a. Member's spouse.

b. Members dependent children, in any number.

c. Other dependents recognized as such for income tax deduction.

d. As long as the claimed total of (a), (b), and (c) is less than four, the member may bring the total to four by naming other blood beneficiaries, even though they are not dependent on him. If substitutions or additions are later sought in this category for any reasons other than marriage, birth, death, separation or divorce, the new blood beneficiary does not become eligible for ADBD Group benefits until 30 days after his name has been entered on the member's record.

e. A substitute donor, not otherwise a beneficiary, shall be a beneficiary for the group donation cycle of the member for whom he substitutes. Section 7 When an associate enrolls as an ADBD member or whenever there is a change under Section 6 of this Article, the name of the blood beneficiary must be reported immediately to the ADBD group administrators.

Section 8 Members unavoidably absent from the Central Kentucky area over a long period may continue protection for themselves and their beneficiaries as follows:

An absent member may continue eligibility for Group benefits by providing an acceptable substitute to take the member's place in the group deposit cycle.

Section 9 There shall be no limit to the amount of blood credits a member or his blood beneficiaries may receive, (except as noted).

NOTE: Prospective members who have medical conditions themselves or among their dependents which may require unusually large quantities of blood (hemophilia is one such condition) must indicate this fact when applying for membership in the Group. The Group's liability to such members must be limited in order to maintain its ability to protect all of its members; hence, its specific liability to any such member will be determined jointly by the Group and the Central Kentucky Blood Center (The Committee and the Center will endeavor to provide adequate protection for such members.)

Section 10 Blood credits from the group account can be sent or credited almost anywhere in the continental United States through CKBC.

ARTICLE III: BENEFITS

Section 1 Benefits shall terminate immediately when a member refuses without good cause to deposit blood when called upon to do so in the normal group deposit cycle, or to provide a substitute depositor, provided that the ADBD Group Administrators may permit a member to postpone deposit of blood for a good reason and for a period at the administrator's discretion. Such postponement shall not change the member's original position in the group deposit cycle.

Section 2 Benefits shall terminate immediately when a member takes residence out of Morgan County and he has not yet deposited blood.

Section 3 When a member takes residence out of Morgan

County after he has deposited blood in the ADBD Group account, his name will be automatically dropped from the files at the end of his individual deposit cycle, but not earlier.

Section 4 If a member dies before he has deposited to the ADBD Group account, his blood beneficiaries will be protected for not more than two months after his death.

Section 5 If a member dies after he has deposited blood to the ADBD Group account, his blood beneficiaries will be protected for two months after his death or for the balance of his individual donation cycle, whichever is the greater.

Section 6 If the group deactivates, the balance will be carried until the end of the yearly cycle or by majority vote they may assign the balance of blood credits to CKBC for charitable use.

ARTICLE IV: PARTICIPATION

Section 1 Order of deposit for the first group donation cycle will be determined by shuffling the enrollment cards or by alphabetical order after close of the charter enrollment period. This will establish the order to be followed in subsequent group deposit cycles. The order will be followed as closely as is consistent with minimal interruption to working routine at times of deposit, but no member shall be required to deposit more than once within a single group deposit cycle unless he wishes to do so.

Section 2 New members will be placed alphabetically in the deposit list.

Section 3 A member may volunteer to deposit blood prior to his turn with approval of the Group Administrators. (Members approaching age 66 are urged to deposit blood to establish credits beyond the age of 66.)

Section 4 The group deposit cycle shall be defined as that period in which all ADBD members have deposited blood. The individual deposit cycle shall be defined as that period between a member's last deposit of blood and the date on which he is called upon to deposit a unit, every fourth year.

ARTICLE V: OPERATION OF ACCOUNT

Section 1 Operation of account will be in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

a. Units representing 25% of our members, must be deposited every year in our account in order to draw on our blood credits. Withdrawals may start earlier provided we arrange to bring deposits up to the required percentage within a reasonable time to be agreed upon. (CKBC will contact ADBD administrators in ample time to set dates for deposits).

b. Clubs must deposit units equivalent to 25% of their membership to activate.

c. That we may deposit more than the required percentage, if we wish to do so.

d. That if we do not complete our required deposit within the stipulated time, our account will be declared inactive. The units deposited will be deducted on a unit for unit basis until one year has elapsed and our account will be completely inactive.

e. Members who need blood for themselves or their beneficiaries should not attempt to deal directly with the hospital or the Central Kentucky Blood Center. To receive assistance they must notify our Group Administrators, who will take prompt action to meet the need.

Section 2 The group cannot be responsible for blood debts contracted before activation of account.

Section 3 Neither our group administrators nor CKBC can assure supplies when fresh blood, instead of stored blood, must be used, but both will give the benefit of their cooperation and advice in meeting such a problem. Blood for Open Heart Surgery will, when possible, be supplied for CKBC.

ARTICLE VI: ADMINISTRATION

Section 1 The administration of the ADBD Group will be under the direction of the Morgan County Blood Bank.

Section 2 A permanent file of membership and participation, and a record keeping system, shall be established and maintained by the Secretary-Treasurer.

Section 3 The ADBD group administrators shall rule regarding benefits, eligibility, blood beneficiaries and all other matters which might require special attention. The administrators may add to or amend the rules subject to agreement with CKBC and by notification of participants.

Section 4 When a participant or blood beneficiary needs replacement blood credits he shall inform the ADBD Group Administrators, who will make the necessary arrangement with CKBC and the hospital. Eat regular meals on day of donation, not necessary to fast.

ODDS AND ENDS

By Earl Kinner, Jr.

As mentioned in this column previously, several folks around West Liberty have nice gardens this year. But Courier printer Jimmy Cantrell was one of the proudest of the lot Monday morning when he walked in and announced he'd got a mess of green beans from his garden over the weekend.

Edward Holbrook, Sr. of West Liberty is featured in the July issue of "Happy Hunting Ground" magazine, official publication of the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources. The article by former Morgan County SCS Technician Berlyn Brown describes Holbrook's methods of managing timber stands which he owns in Morgan, Breathitt, and other counties. Holbrook, who is 81, says one of his primary goals is to provide a haven for wildlife. He refuses to cut nut-bearing and den trees. However, he now has some prime timber ready for sale—fine, tall poplars, maples, walnuts, oaks, hickory, and beech. Says Holbrook, "I'd rather manage the woods well than allow trees to decay and be wasted."

Ray Hancey of Malone was in Tuesday to re-sign for his paper. Said he felt awful bad because he'd fooled around and let his subscription run out. "Almost," he said, "like the feller was that went to the woods squirrel huntin' and almost got trapped in a hollar log. It come up a shower of rain and he crawled back in a hollar log to get in the dry and went to sleep. When he woke up he discovered it'd rained so hard the hole he'd crawled in had swelled part near shut and he couldn't get out. It looked like his time had sure come and he got to studyin' about the kind of life he'd led, the things he'd been meanin' to do and kept puttin' off doin', etc. Pretty soon he got to feelin' so small he just crawled out the crack."

OIL AND GAS NEWS

ROME TO DRILL AGAIN

ROME PLANS WELL — Reports are heard that Rome Oil & Gas Co. of Lexington plans to drill a well in the Caney area, possibly a deep one. Rome has acquired about 3,000 acres of leases on Caney, around Caney City and on White Oak. The company drilled a test well on the Ernest Craft lease a few months ago, and it is thought that they discovered a sharp "tilt" in the structure that may indicate a "trough" nearby. Apparently, they will try for the "trough" with their new well.
